

Hazrat Sultan-ul-Oliya Foundation (Regd)

Hazrat Sultan-ul-Oliya Foundation is the main organisation of Jamaat Luari Sharif, dedicated to the cause of development of the Jamaat besides other rural communities by empowering individuals to improve their living conditions.

It is headed by the present Pir of Luari Sharif, Pir Muhammad Sadiq Qureshi. It also serves as the parent body, supervising all the development activities and works being done by the other organisations in the Jamaat.

Hazrat Sultan-ul-Oliya Foundation was established in September 1990. Its idea was conceived by Hazrat Rahimee Badshah Pir Haji Faiz Muhammad Qureshi Qudus Sarhu and he was its founding chairman. The foundation is registered with the Government of Sindh.

Solely dependent on funding from Pir Muhammad Sadiq Qureshi, the Foundation boasts of activating volunteers from Jamaat Luari Sharif for its activities, particularly in health and education sectors. It is also the main grant-making body for the social development of the Jamaat.

So far, Hazrat Sultan-ul-Oliya Foundation has arranged numerous medical camps in Luari Sharif and elsewhere, where thousands of people were given free medicines and necessary treatment, without any discrimination. It also provides scholarships and stipends to the needy students, helping them continue higher education.

The Foundation has deep interest in the publication of literature on the lives and teachings of the Sajjadah Nashins of Luari Sharif. Till-date it has published various books in this regard and endeavouring to spread its activities for common awareness.
